

Beech House Election

As the General Election gripped the nation, Beech House School created their own Election 'promises', to ensure all children were taught the value of Democracy as part of their 'British Values' curriculum.

